

The new European politics on migration: walls, borders, and challenge for welcoming and integration

8 October 2016 - 17h00-19h00

European Civic Academy

La Rochelle, France

Presentation

The context is characterised by European policies' drifts focusing on a restrictive asylum reform, on erecting multiple walls including a model of externalisation. The workshop will discuss the various welcome and integration models that prove possible and could support a real democratic change all through the European space.

Moderation

Sara Prestianni (ARCI) and Frank Heuberger (BBE)

Contributors

Sara Prestianni, Arci

General Overview on European policies (relocation/hosting/detention/externalisation)

Fausto Melluso, Arci

The Italian borders and reception management system

Maria Vrijea, Transform

Reception in Greece: institutional and non-institutional responses

Mirko Schwaerzel, BBE

From Reception to Integration: A European comparison on national integration plans and the role of civil society

Frank Heuberger, BBE

The German integration model: Participation of civil society and migrants community's organisations in decision-making and policy development

Zrinka Bralo, Migrants Organise

For a gender perspective in migration

Giuseppe Caccia , European Alternatives

Starting from municipalities best practices in Europe for an international change

European Civic Academy is organised by:

